

Rede Advisers – COVID-19 preparations

The COVID-19 pandemic has hit us all like a tidal wave. Like all businesses, we are monitoring developments and taking on board advice from the Ministry of Health, WHO and the NZ Government. While the risk is currently assessed as low, it is important for us to have appropriate plans in place to avoid as much disruption as possible.

Our primary concern is for the health and safety of our employees and you, our valued clients.

While it is business as usual for now, we have taken the following steps:

- ⊕ Requested that if any of our staff feel unwell, that they stay away from the office and seek medical advice.
- ⊕ Restricting face-to-face contact wherever possible within reason, with a preference to holding meetings by phone, email or Skype.
- ⊕ Put a temporary stop on all staff travel and attendance at training and networking events.
- ⊕ Ensured that our team can operate remotely from home if this becomes necessary, with a minimal of disruption to you.

We will continue to post updates on our website, www.rede.co.nz, as this situation evolves. Please keep safe and healthy, and we look forward to seeing you again in person when we bounce back from the effects of this pandemic.

In the meantime, please don't hesitate to get in touch if we help. We are here to help with your financial decisions in this disruptive environment.

Best wishes

The Rede Advisers team
